

Technician in footwear production

Description

A person who is in charge of the industrial and custom-made production of standards, and of the orthopaedic footwear for shows and fashion accessories, by cutting, joining, assembling, and finishing leather, leather, synthetics, fabrics and other materials.

Professional Skills/Competences

(Job-related skills/competences)

- Cutting leather and fur articles, preparing/stitching leather and fur; assembling/finishing leather goods, assembling/finishing footwear, repairing footwear, leather goods and decoration;
- Managing the production of footwear and leather goods, guaranteeing the rhythms, quality, and safety at work and environmental processes;
- Applying the execution processes necessary for the manufacture of footwear products and accessories or collections. Choosing the techniques to be used, as well as the quality controls and the elements of occupational and environmental safety that are necessary.

TECHNICAL AND SOFT Skills

(Personal and social skills)

Technical Skills:

- Textile technology
- Tailoring and pattern-making
- Materials
- Production processes

Soft Skills:

- Teamwork
- Proactivity
- Availability
- Tolerance for repetitive work

Work/professional environment

This person works in a footwear production plant within the following departments/job related positions: Manufacture of footwear for men, women, children and especially, manufacture of small leather goods, manufacture of bags, footwear, travel goods, cases, etc.